Welcome to Book Bites: A Cookbook Book Group!

We meet the 2nd Monday of the month from 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm.

Here’s how it works:

- Register for the program by going to nklibrary.org, click on Programs, locate the Book Bites cookbook notice and click on the Register Online link.
- Everyone who attends this program has to bring a dish from that month’s cookbook. If two members of the same family attend; two dishes must be made.
- Come to the library and pick up the cookbook for that month at the Circulation desk (you can also register at the circulation desk for the program).
- Read through the chosen cookbook.
- Pick a recipe.
- Contact me with the recipe chosen by the Friday before the meeting.
- Make enough of the dish for all to have a taste. We average 20 participants a month.
- Bring the dish to the meeting with any serving utensils needed.
- Enjoy tasting everyone’s dishes and discussing the cookbook around the table.

Copies of the cookbooks are available at the circulation desk. Please stop in and pick up a copy soon.

Let me know as soon as possible which recipe you will be bringing to our meeting. This is to ensure that we do not have duplicate offerings.

I will have plates, napkins and utensils for everyone but please bring serving utensils. Many of the participants bring their own “real” dish from home because “the food is so good it deserves to be on a real plate!”

If you have any questions or ideas for future cookbooks, please email me or call me at 401-294-3306 x6102.
